Zoo launches A Brush With Nature painting event series New series takes place in scenic areas at the zoo

WHAT: Unleash your inner artist and discover how to capture the beauty of art and the natural world through Woodland Park Zoo's new "paint and sip" event series, A Brush With Nature. The series will offer 12 classes for all ages or exclusively for 21+.

No technical skill required—this is designed to be fun and relaxing for all skill levels and ages, making it perfect for families, young artists or adults or making new friends!

Local-based, professional artists will provide step-by-step instructions, blending creativity and preservation of wildlife. To inspire your flora and fauna vibe, classes will take place outdoors in lush, scenic areas across the zoo; fall classes will take place indoors.

Rain or shine, all sessions will take place in covered areas.

COST: All art supplies included

All ages: $57 per person, includes zoo admission. Refreshments and non-alcoholic beverages available for purchase. Sessions are during the day on weekends or weekdays when school is out.

21+: $77 per person, includes zoo admission ticket which may be used at a future date. Refreshments and alcoholic beverages (ID required) available for purchase. Sessions are evenings on weekends or weeknights.

No refunds. Rescheduling must be done two weeks before the scheduled event. If the zoo cancels, refunds will be issued or tickets rescheduled.

WHERE: Woodland Park Zoo, 5500 Phinney Ave. N.

INFO: The first class begins Saturday, April 19. Visit www.zoo.org/brushwithnature for information and tickets.

Winter zoo hours: 9:30 a.m.–4:00 p.m. daily. For admission prices and tickets, visit www.zoo.org/visit. To learn more about Woodland Park Zoo or to become a zoo member, visit www.zoo.org and follow the zoo on Facebook, Instagram, Bluesky and TikTok.
